

COME ON UP TO THE HOUSE

AN OLD-TIME VARIETY HOUR WITH
JOHN MORTENSEN & FRIENDS

A BENEFIT FOR SAFE HARBOR

Friday, April 24th 2020
7:30 pm
Cedarville Opera House
Cedarville, OH

HOW CAN I HELP?

Consider sponsoring our upcoming benefit concert, "Come On Up To The House" at the $500 (Sarah Vaughan), $1,000 (Billie Holiday), or $2,500 (Ella Fitzgerald) level. In keeping with our theme, we've named these sponsorship levels after female jazz musician greats!

Hosted by international concert performer, Steinway Artist, and multi-stylistic musician John Mortensen, "Come On Up To The House" will feature the region's finest performers, good times, jazz, traditional Irish music, classic silent films with live improvised music, rollicking fun, and much more.

All proceeds will go directly to support the work of Safe Harbor and are tax deductible.

THANK YOU!

In order to show our gratitude, our sponsors will be:

- Advertised in the event program
- Added to our list of sponsors on our website
- And receive copious amounts of social media mentions!

Especially for our Ella Fitzgerald level sponsors, John will compose and perform an original, old-timey, radio-style jingle! (You really should check out this fun example from last year:

"Dr. Jerry's Double Chocolate Frosted Dental Floss" <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TOJv1OUzNic>)

DEAR COMMUNITY LEADER:

Safe Harbor is a residential, long-term, and faith-based program for women caught in the cycles of trauma and addiction. Approximately 50% of the women served at Safe Harbor are survivors of human trafficking; childhood sexual abuse, domestic violence, and homelessness are other traumatic experiences commonly shared by our residents.

Safe Harbor provides wrap-around social services and holistic programming for up to 18 months. Services include professional trauma therapy, drug and alcohol treatment, connection to medical and social services, nutrition classes, life skill development, job readiness training, mentorship, education in our 6 Growth Areas (physical, spiritual, emotional, relational, vocational, and life skills), and so much more. This all takes place in the context of a therapeutic environment with 24/7 staff support and accountability.

Programs like Safe Harbor are few and far between, in no small part due to the cost of maintaining such a high level of care for survivors. We would be honored if you would consider financially partnering with us to continue bringing hope and wholeness to women in crisis.
