For Your Information...

Safe Harbor House will keep a file on each volunteer that is actively working with participants. This file will be stored in a secure location and will contain things like your application, Pastoral reference letter, Volunteer Orientation paperwork, etc. You may see or make copies of the contents of this file at any time with the help of a Safe Harbor House staff member. This information will not be given out to others (including Safe Harbor participants) without your verbal or written consent.

I Understand that...

- The accuracy of this application will determine my eligibility to volunteer at Safe Harbor House.
- This application does not guarantee that I will be placed in a Volunteer position.
- I may be asked to leave my volunteer position if I fail to abide by the guidelines that will be outlined in the Volunteer Orientation.
- I will be expected to hold information about Safe Harbor House staff and participants in confidence.
